

Elke Suber is Associate General Counsel for Microsoft Corporation, where she is responsible for worldwide legal matters for the Global Partner Solutions organization, a Multi-Billion dollar business driving partner device and cloud sales and oversees a team of lawyers and paralegals. Elke previously served as Associate General Counsel and led the legal team for the Microsoft Store, and managed the legal teams for Microsoft's consumer and device sales and advertising businesses. Since joining Microsoft in 2005, Elke has served in a variety of roles, including lead attorney for several of the company's online products, and lead copyright attorney for the Xbox business. Elke Suber has significant experience serving as a strategic advisor for technology businesses, closing complex multi-national transactions, and advising on intellectual property and technology related matters.

Prior to joining Microsoft, Elke was an attorney for CIGNA's Technology group, and a litigation associate with the law firms Anderson, Kill, and Olick and Akin Gump in Philadelphia. She began her legal career as a law clerk for the Honorable Justin M. Johnson of the Pennsylvania Superior Court and the Honorable Gary L. Lancaster of the US District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Elke served as Chair of BESLA's Board of Directors from 2016-2018, and in various leadership roles on BESLA's Board from 2008-2016. Elke is a Board member for the Girl Scouts of Western Washington, and serves on the Board of Trustees for the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. In 2018, Elke was the commencement speaker for the University of Pittsburgh School of Law Graduation Ceremony, and was recognized by Savoy Magazine as one of 2018's "Most Influential Black Lawyers in America". Elke has been featured in articles in MCCA's Diversity and the Law Magazine, the Huffington Post, the Root.com and Rolling Out. Elke was also featured in the book "Life at the Speed of Passion", by Eve Wright. Elke holds a J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and earned her B.S. from Slippery Rock University.